DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

This Office action is in response to the amendment file July 9, 2003 and the supplemental amendment filed August 6, 2003. Although the supplemental amendment states that it is in response to "the Office Action dated July 9, 2003", it is noted that no Office action was issued on such date. It appears that the supplemental amendment refers to the Office action mailed April 9, 2003.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 22 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Park et al. (US 6,332,821) in view of Dynka et al. (US 5,697,825).

Park disclose a method for manufacturing a display panel, comprising:
assembling a front substrate (11) and a rear substrate (112) in face to face relationship with a sealing frit (23) therebetween at edge portions, so as to form an inner space;
heating the front substrate and the rear substrate to a first temperature (up to 350°C) in a chamber and exhausting impurity gas from the substrates (col.5 lines 8-10); further heating the front and rear substrates to a second temperature higher than the first temperature to melt the sealing frit by further heating the front substrate, the rear substrate and the frit (col.5 lines 12-14); solidifying the sealing frit and sealing up the front and the rear substrates (col.5 lines 41-43).

Park discloses substantially the claimed invention except for hole in the sealing frit. Dynka teaches a sealing frit (60,62) having defining gaps/holes in the sealing frit to provide a flow path during evacuation and sealing process (col.7 lines 21-24).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to form the sealing frit of Park having a hole, as taught by Dynka, to provide a flow path during evacuation and sealing process.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-21 are allowed.

Claim 23 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
